BC Enterprises Offers Green Invoices/Statements

Now you can join BC in preserving the planet's natural resources just by sending invoices and statements via email. Not only will this create less waste, use less energy, and help maintain the environment by saving trees, it will improve our level of service to our valued customers, and also make a positive impact.

Invoices and statements can be sent directly to the person you designate, saving time and possible delays with the paper shuffle.

Complete the form below to include with your payment, call us at (305) 852-0401, or email to BCEnterprises@live.com to get started in helping preserve our Earth.
